A Bridge to Literacy: Oral & Written Text Instruction K-6

Event Description

This all day PD session is for teachers and support staff including education assistants and AIEOs. The session will support staff in planning for and implementing effective oral and written text instruction for K-6 students with an emphasis on supporting the development of macrostructure and microstructure skills in both oral and written narratives for a variety of narrative genres (fictional, persuasive, reports, and procedures). The session will provide a balance between theory and practice, with examples of lessons, video observations and resource exploration included throughout. All participants attending will receive a resource CD with supporting assessment, planning and teaching resources.

Session Outline:
- Discussion of evidence based approaches to oral and written narrative instruction (theory)
- Systematic narrative instruction: frameworks, scope & sequences, target setting K-6, and timetabling
- Explicit narrative instruction: explicit teaching frameworks, video observations, and planning
- Exploration of narrative programs, resources and activities
- Integrating syntax and morphology instruction within oral narrative lessons
- Supporting the oral to literate continuum: ideas and strategies
